

Colleen Jamieson has been involved in the PSIA Intermountain Division for over 15 years. Her passion for life-long learning and performance, guided her to success, becoming a member of the IM Education Staff in 2007. For the Past 3 years she has been an advocate for the Intermountain Region as a BOD member and guided with education in mind as the Intermountain Education Leadership Council Representative. The National Education Leadership Council has been integral to the mission towards national alignment and leads taskforce groups representing all disciplines of PSIA-AASI. Colleen keeps an open mind and supports all discipline education and instructor development in this role. She continues to focus on scholarship needs and creating opportunities for all size member schools and demographics. As a member of the board she strives to listen, and is encouraged by her desire to effect change for the better, through sound problem solving and teamwork. Equality, collaboration, and inclusion is becoming increasingly important to continue building passion for the industry, recognition for professionalism, and growth of our region. She looks forward to improving efficiency, consistency, and quality and is proud to be a part of the PSIA-AASI community.
